What is it?

Is your company's performance keeping you awake at night? Do you need to grow your revenues, increase your sales, get more mileage from your people? Are you dreaming of a bigger market share?

Don't stop dreaming, because American Express Corporate Events helps you achieve those goals.

Our highly experienced professionals come up with the best solutions for your group travel, worldwide organisation of conferences and seminars or the most exhilarating incentive trips for your staff, managements and clients.

We start of with originality of thinking and continue with flexibility of execution to deliver the most creative and exclusive programmes, tailored to suit your needs.

The end goal is always the same: making sure your incentive travel pays off!

Key Features

GROUPS

Our Group consultants are in daily contact with the airlines to get the best deals and conditions for all groups of 10 or more participants. They offer advice on all aspects of group travel and are available at the airport to help you with the check-in process.

CONFERENCES - SEMINARS

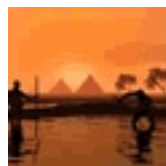

We take maximum care of all your conference and seminar needs in Belgium, Luxembourg and abroad.

We provide a full A to Z service, ranging from invitations, search for locations and hotel accommodation, travel arrangements, and much more.

INCENTIVES

The most important reason for an incentive is motivation. An incentive is first of all a reward...

But all of this has to be planned. The organization of incentive trips requires creativity and organizational skills. Both are present in abundance in our Incentive Team.
